SUMMER 2018 A TERM

MTuWTh | 1:10-3:20 p.m. | UW SIEG HALL 229

JSIS A 434 - POL S 434 (5 CREDITS)

We will focus on seminal developments including partition, the role of great power interventions, intra-regional dynamics rise of nuclear powers and emerging challenges. We will use perspectives from the region to analyze the influence of key global and regional forces on cooperation and conflict in a geography with two nuclear powers (India and Pakistan), states that have endured ethnic unrest (Sri Lanka, Nepal and Bangladesh), and societies battling terrorism (Afghanistan).
