

COMMUNITY HEALING & RESILIENCE: two spirit and queer/trans pacific islander perspectives

Hiram Calf Looking Sr. (Blackfeet)
Co-founder
Northwest Two Spirit Society

Taffy Lei Johnson (Fa'afafine)
Founder, Executive Director, U.T.O.P.I.A.
United Territories of Pacific Islanders Alliance

Join us for a panel to learn more about two spirit and QTPI* communities, the importance of cultural connection in reclaiming identity, and the work these important organizations are doing to fight racism and sexism to support the health and wellbeing of Native American/Alaska Native and Pacific Islander people.

RSVP here or email: vg@uw.edu

Moderated by: Victoria Gardner, Ed.D., Chief Diversity Officer, School of Public Health

**Two spirit people are Aboriginal/First Nation/Native American/American Indian/Alaska Native/Metis/Inuit AND identify as gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgender; QTPI is abbreviation for Queer/Trans Pacific Islanders*

June 5 2018, Tuesday
3:30 – 5:00 pm
South Campus Center 221

