

G H 305/LAW 305 WINTER 2019

Global Health and Justice

TUESDAYS-THURSDAYS | 10:30-11:20 AM
THURSDAY AFTERNOON DISCUSSION SECTIONS
3 CREDITS

Interested in the right to health and health justice around the world?

A newly revised course offering from the UW Department of Global Health provides an overview of leading global health issues and the linkage that exists to law, ethics and social injustice around the world. The course will address the right to health in international human rights law and bioethics in assessing health disparities, global health policies; and global health interventions.

DEPARTMENT OF GLOBAL HEALTH
UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

Course Details

- Open to non-majors; sophomores, juniors and seniors
- Focus on Health & Human Rights
- Lectures, discussion group session, blog posts for homework, 2 in-class quizzes and one online final

Questions?

Contact instructor
Dr. Beth Rivin

brivin@uw.edu

We're Online.

[globalhealth.
washington.edu](http://globalhealth.washington.edu)