

2019 CHID Study Abroad Programs

Through engagement with local scholars, artists, political leaders, activists, and community members, we prepare students to make change in an increasingly globalized world.

APPLY HERE:
chid.uw.edu/study-abroad

Spring 2019

Apply by Nov 15, 2018

Prague, Czech Republic

History, Memory, and Human Rights in Central Europe

Summer 2019

Apply by Jan 31, 2018

Amsterdam, Netherlands (Early Summer)

Tolerance, Identity, and Difference in Amsterdam

co-sponsored by Student-Athlete Academic Services*

Buenos Aires, Argentina (Full Term)

Political Landscapes of Buenos Aires: Neoliberalism and the Struggle for Alternatives

co-sponsored by Geography*

Bangalore, India (A-Term)

Weaving Stories: Textiles, Fabrics, and Feminism in South India

co-sponsored by English*

Ha Noi, Viet Nam (A-Term)

Building for Peace in the Wake of War

Lima, Peru (A-Term)

Art and the Politics of Blackness and Indigeneity in Peru's Past and Present

co-sponsored by Latin American & Caribbean Studies*

Manila, Philippines (B-Term)

American Occupation, Identity Construction, and Social Action

Early Fall 2019

Apply by Feb 15, 2019

Accra, Ghana

Global Service Learning and the Politics of Help in Ghana

Auckland, New Zealand

Sovereignty, Environment, and Representation in Aotearoa

co-sponsored by American Indian Studies*

Lyon, France

Arts and Innovation in Lyon

Romania, Moldova, & Ukraine

The Buffer Zone of the EU: Romania, Moldova, and Ukraine

co-sponsored by Jackson School of International Studies*

Autumn 2019

Apply by Feb 15, 2019

Prague, Czech Republic

History, Memory, and Human Rights in Central Europe

QUESTIONS?

email: chidout@uw.edu

visit: Padelford Hall B101

call: 206.685.4716

LEAVE YOUR COMFORT ZONE.

Open to all majors.

Financial aid available.

No language requirement.

CHID W