

ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSIONS ON SOUTHERN AFRICA

Sponsored by The Foundation for International Understanding Through Students (FIUTS), UW Libraries, and the Center for Global Studies

Meet visiting student leaders from Angola, Botswana, Mozambique, South Africa, and Zimbabwe!

Engage in conversations to learn about their successes, hopes, and challenges as they create initiatives to improve their home communities, and share your own experiences and ideas.

Wednesday, January 23, 2019
Roundtable Discussions: 5:30 pm-7:30 pm
Arrive any time!
Refreshments will be served

University of Washington
Odegaard Undergraduate Library
Room 220

More information about the SUSI program is available at www.fiuts.org/susi

FIUTS advances international understanding through cross-cultural experiences, student leadership, and community connections.

RSVP online at:
<https://fiutsroundtable.eventbrite.com>
or email kailyn@fiuts.org

